

FBQ1: _____ is defined as the production of crops and rearing of animals for the purpose of producing food for man's use and raw materials for industries.
Answer: Modern agriculture

FBQ2: Modern agricultural system does not include-----
Answer: Shifting cultivation

FBQ3: The person who studies plant life and soil and their complex relationships is called _____ Answer: Agronomist

FBQ4: _____ concern themselves with the formulation and production of animal feeds.
Answer: Agricultural Biology

FBQ5: _____ concern themselves with the formulation and production of animal feeds.
Answer: Agricultural Biochemistry and Nutrition

FBQ6: Animal pathology is the study of -----
Answer: Animal health

FBQ7: Subsistence agriculture is carried out by the farmer and his/her -----
Answer: Family

FBQ8: The science of feeding and the scientific investigations into the food supplied or fed is called _____
Answer: Nutrition

FBQ9: Plant and animal by-products are normally referred to as _____ Answer: Concentrates

FBQ10: Agriculture is made of subsistence agriculture and ----- agriculture
Answer: Commercial

FBQ11: Complex sugar/carbohydrate is stored in the body as -----
Answer: Glycogen

FBQ12: Farming is looked upon by many as an _____ for the poor people.
Answer: occupation

FBQ13: The land use decree was promulgated in _____ and amended by an Act in the year 1990.
Answer: 1978

FBQ14: The different ways in which farmers cultivate crops and rear animals for use by man is referred to as _____ Answer: Agricultural systems

FBQ15: _____ is usually associated with mechanized agriculture in which cereal crops are planted.

Answer: Mono cropping

FBQ16: Apart from carbohydrates, indicate the other type of food that is an energy producing food

Answer: Fat

FBQ17: _____ refers to the deficiency or inadequacy of essential nutrients and thus results to the pronouncement of one type of disease or the other in the body

Answer: Malnutrition

FBQ18: _____ is a condition of improper or insufficient diet.

Answer: Malnutrition

FBQ19: Routine _____ is given to farm animals especially poultry immunity against the outbreak of diseases.

Answer: Vaccination

FBQ20: _____ is a disease condition that is characterized by serious shortage of blood in the host body.

Answer: Anemia

FBQ21: Originally the term agriculture is derived from two latin words "Ager" and "Cultura"

Answer: Cultura

FBQ22: _____ attempt to develop techniques that will increase the yield of field crops, improve their quality, and enhance production efficiency and profitability, while conserving the fertility of the soil.

Answer: Agronomists

FBQ23: The vitamin that is essentially concerned with good sight is vitamin

Answer: A

FBQ24: The mineral that is concerned with having strong bones and teeth in animals is -

Answer: Calcium

FBQ25: Cultura refers or simply means to _____ Answer: Cultivate

FBQ26: Modern agriculture does not end in the production of food for man alone. True or False

Answer: True

FBQ27: Production of crop is classed as ----- production level

Answer: Primary

FBQ28: The science and art of growing fruit, vegetables, flowers, shrubs and trees is what is called _____

Answer: Horticulture

FBQ29: Olericulture stands for the production of _____ crops

Answer: Vegetable

FBQ30: The early man was a wanderer; he lived by hunting wild animals and gathering wild fruits. There was no attempt to either cultivate the land or domesticate the animals. This stage of man's life was called the _____

Answer: Stone age

FBQ31: The type of agriculture that involves the farmer moving from one place to another after some time is known as _____

Answer: Shifting cultivation

FBQ32: Land _____ is the system of land ownership.

Answer: Tenure

FBQ33: The process through which farmers receive information in modern farming from the relevant government agencies is known as _____

Answer: extension service

FBQ34: Carbohydrates can be classified into _____ classes.

Answer: 3

FBQ35: Provision of Food for Man, Employment of Labour and Provision of Raw Materials for Industries, are _____ of agriculture

Answer: Importance

Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs):

MCQ1: The study that deals with crop production and soil management is referred to as _____

Answer: Agriculture

MCQ2: Animal health is also called _____

Answer: Pathology

MCQ3: _____ is another name for gardening.

Answer: Backyard farm

MCQ4: _____ concern themselves with the formulation and production of animal feeds

Answer: Agricultural Caterers

MCQ5: One of the following is not among the scope of agriculture.

Answer: Agricultural supply

MCQ6: Agriculture actually started with the -----

Answer: Middle age

MCQ7: Subsistence agriculture has all the following major characteristic except:

Answer: The production involves mechanization

MCQ8: Improved implements and machines are usually used in ----- agriculture

Answer: Commercial

MCQ9: The first time the land use decree was promulgated was in the year -----

Answer: 1980

MCQ10: _____ involves the improvement of agricultural practices.

Answer: Agricultural Engineering

MCQ11: Which of these is not among the job or expectation of the extension agent/agricultural extension worker?

Answer: Training farmers on input use

MCQ12: The major disadvantage of mono-cropping system as associated with mechanization is that the system does not allow -----

Answer: Mechanization

MCQ13: Anything that is eating for growth and development of the body is -----

Answer: Food

MCQ14: Carbohydrate is basically stored in the body as -----

Answer: Glycogen

MCQ15: Carbohydrates may be classified into the following classes except:

Answer: Monosaccharide

MCQ16: Originally the term agriculture is derived from two latin words "Ager" and "Cultura"

Answer: Culture

MCQ17: Modern agriculture involves the following activities except:

Answer: Cultivation of the land for the production of crops

MCQ18: _____ attempt to develop techniques that will increase the yield of field crops, improve their quality, and enhance production efficiency and profitability, while conserving the fertility of the soil.

Answer: Agronomists

MCQ19: The branch of agriculture that formulates feeds for different categories of animals is known as _____.

Answer: Animal Health

MCQ20: _____ involves the use of life sciences for the improvement of agricultural practices.

Answer: Agricultural Biology

MCQ21: The following are the scope of agriculture except:

Answer: Crop husbandry

MCQ22: The following are the stages of agricultural development except:

Answer: Stone Age

MCQ23: The following are the major characteristic of subsistence agriculture except:

Answer: Small area of land is used

MCQ24: _____ type of agriculture thrive well where there is availability of; large land, enough capital to purchase land, improved plant and animal materials, farm machines, processing machines, farm labour, storage facilities and other essential amenities.

Answer: Cash crop farming

MCQ25: The following are the major roles played by agriculture in Nigeria economy except:

Answer: Provision of Food for Man

MCQ26: Which of these is not the problem facing the development of agriculture in Nigeria.

Answer: Production uncertainty

MCQ27: The following are the results of the illiteracy of farmers except:

Answer: Farmers are always ready to change

MCQ28: The following are the effects of pests and diseases on agricultural development except:

Answer: Reduction in the cost of production

MCQ29: The following are some of the solution to the Problems of Agricultural Development Nigeria except-----

Answer: Provision of Infrastructural Facilities

MCQ30: The following are the factors determining the farming or cropping systems of an area except:

Answer: Economic factor

MCQ31: The following are the main farming systems in Nigeria except:

Answer: Land Rotation

MCQ32: One of these is the first necessity of life and the most important factor in relation to the building and maintenance of life.

Answer: Water

MCQ33: What do you call the science of feeding and the scientific investigations into the food supplied or fed?

Answer: Nutrition

MCQ34: The following are functions of calcium except:

Answer: Essential for bone and teeth formation

MCQ35: These are the functions of Vitamin A (Retinol) except:

Answer: Proper night vision