

MCQ1: Clothing, shelter and _____ are essential in our daily life

Answer: Food

MCQ2: Textile fabrics which could be used by individual, household linen is called

Answer: Clothing

MCQ3: What are made from animals, vegetables and synthetic fibres?

Answer: Fabrics

MCQ4: The process of making fabrics from textile takes how many main stages?

Answer: Three

MCQ5: Cotton plants grow in Nigeria and many tropical regions

Answer: True

MCQ6: Fibres can be classified into _____ groups

Answer: two

MCQ7: Natural fibre is wool obtained from fleece of sheep, hair of Carmel and silk obtained from _____ of silk

Answer: cocoons

MCQ8: Artificial fibres are made by using chemicals and other materials such as wood pulp and cool _____

Answer: derivations

MCQ9: Which of the following is made from cellulose collected from wood pulp _____?

Answer: Rayon

MCQ10: Which of the following are soft, strong and can be produced in colours and weight

Answer: Tereylene

MCQ11: Polythene and lurex are other man-made fibres

Answer: True

MCQ12: Which of the following is cool to wear, feel crisp and absorb moisture up to 40% of its weight?

Answer: Cotton

MCQ13: Which of the following is very strong and durable fabric and absorbs a little more moisture than cotton _____?

Answer: Linen

MCQ14: Which of the following is mostly used during the cold weather and it is very elastic?

Answer: Wool

MCQ15: Labels are tests which are means of identifying fabrics

Answer: False

MCQ16: One of these is smooth, very fine and warm to touch

Answer: silk

MCQ17: It has a rich soft appearance, absorbs moisture and it is a good conductor of heat

Answer: acetate

MCQ18: Finishes are special treatment put on fabrics to make them look attractive

Answer: true

MCQ19: Finishing process which involves cleaning and bleaching a fabric to make it look white is called

Answer: Purification

MCQ20: Treatment given to cotton fabric to give a glazed or lustrous appearance is called

Answer: Mercerised

MCQ21: The Akwete cloth is produced from dyed, spun and twisted cotton_____

Answer: yarn

MCQ22: Akwete cloth is made in Akwete,_____state

Answer: Abia

MCQ23: The middle finger is protected by one of the following while sewing

Answer: thimble

MCQ24: One of these is used for sewing, its colour and material sewn must be the same or very close

Answer: thread

MCQ25: A sharp and very slender metal used to hold material in position for sewing is called.

Answer: Pin

MCQ26: A sewing tool used for cutting on fabrics before and while sewing is called

Answer: scissors

MCQ27: Pinking _____ is used for neatening edges of specimens and seams garments

Answer: Shears

MCQ28: Which of the following is used for piercing small opening for eyelets?

Answer: Stiletto

MCQ29: An instrument used for picking pins and needle is called

Answer: Magnet

MCQ30: Tailor's chalk is available in different colours and _____

Answer: shapes

MCQ31: There are _____ types of stitches

Answer: four

MCQ32: The stitches that are often removed after permanent stitches are worked on are called

Answer: Temporary stitches

MCQ33: Another name for basting is

Answer: tacking

MCQ34: Running stitch means which of these?

Answer: A permanent stitch worked by hand

MCQ35: Fishbone stitch is used to draw the edges of a clean straight tear along warp and left together before draining.

Answer: true

FBQ2: There are natural and -----fabrics

Answer: Man-made

FBQ2: Fabrics protect the body from _____ and heat.

Answer: Cold

FBQ3: Very important to maintain a decent and presentable appearance by wearing good-----.

Answer: Clothing.

FBQ4: There are various fabrics, natural and -----

Answer: Man made.

FBQ5: Fibres can be classified into -----groups.

Answer: Two

FBQ6: Linen is obtained from the fibre of a plant known as -----

Answer: Flax.

FBQ7: -----fibres absorb moisture and dry quickly than most natural fibres.

Answer: Linen

FBQ8: Cotton is obtained from the fibres of the cotton bolls surrounding the -----

Answer: Seed

FBQ9: What is used for making glass and tea towels?

Answer: Linen

FBQ10: -----is made from various chemicals. It has the properties of wool but does not shrink like wool.

Answer: Terrylen

FBQ11: Crimplene is another type of -----.

Answer: Terrylen

FBQ12: -----is not common in Nigeria but it is mostly used during cold weather.

Answer: Wool

FBQ13: Finishing process which involves cleaning and bleaching a fabric to make it look white is-----

Answer: Purification

FBQ14: The Akwete cloth is made in Akwete, in-----State

Answer: Abia

FBQ15: -----is used for sewing

Answer: Thread

FBQ16: Sewing tools are referred to as -----equipment

Answer: Small

FBQ17: What is used to protect the middle finger is called-----

Answer: Thimble

FBQ18: -----is made up of firm fabric and clearly marked on both sides with inches and centimetres respectively.

Answer: Tape measure

FBQ19: Tailors use----- with tracing paper to transfer pattern markings into fabrics.

Answer: Tracing wheel

FBQ20: -----is used for cuttings on fabrics before and while sewing

Answer: Scissors

FBQ21: ----- is an instrument used for picking pins and needles

Answer: Magnet

FBQ22: ----is a thick, blunt needle of about 7.62cm long, with a large oval eye for threading tapes, elastic or ribbon through casing or eyelet holes in fabric.

Answer: Bodkin

FBQ23: What is used for piercing small opening for eyelets is called-----

Answer: Stiletto

FBQ24: Pinking shears is used for neatening edges of specimens and seams of -----

Answer: Garments

FBQ25: Clothing, shelter and _____ are essential in our daily life
Answer: Food

FBQ26: What is also referred to as basting?
Answer: Tacking

FBQ27: Uneven tacking or irregular tacking is also known as temporary stitch and-----

Answer: Tacking

FBQ28: -----is a method of joining two or more pieces of materials together.
Answer: Seam

FBQ29: ----- are provided in outfits to make them easy for wearing and removal.
Answer: Openings

FBQ30: There are ---types of seams
Answer: Two

FBQ31: ----- are worn to protect our outer garments when we are cooking or working within the house or in our workshop
Answer: Aprons

FBQ32: When cooking or doing house work , -----is tied on the head
Answer: Scarf

FBQ33: An -----is something extra, helpful, useful but not essential.
Answer: Accessory

FBQ34: -----is attached to a sewing machine in place of a regular presser foot to form and stitch a narrow hem without tacking first
Answer: Narrow hemmer

FBQ35: Sweat glands in a normal healthy person secrete perspiration and oil through the ---
Answer: Skin