

FBQ1: Ecotourism emphasizes on ----- type of tourism?

Answer: Nature-oriented

FBQ2: ----- Tourism explains tourism development that did not compromise the ability of future generations to enjoy tourist resources?

Answer: Sustainable

FBQ3: ----- argued for environmental sustainability?

Answer: Eco-tourism

FBQ4: Theoretically, parks reduce the risk of ----- because they contain sizeable populations of endangered species?

Answer: Extinctions

FBQ5: ----- costs explains the costs associated with developing roads and facilities and preparing a management plan for a protected area?

Answer: Direct

FBQ6: ----- and tourism is normally the primary objectives in national parks?

Answer: Recreation

FBQ7: Subsidiary services develop naturally in the process of -----

Answer: Urbanisation

FBQ8: Ecotourism may be one of the most obvious ways to promote ----- development?

Answer: Sustainable

FBQ9: ----- fees are charged to individuals or groups licensed to provide services to visitors at selected sites?

Answer: Concession

FBQ10: A hard eco-tourism trip may require the ----- to walk miles into undeveloped backlands?

Answer: Tourist

FBQ11: ----- is equivalent to nature-oriented tourism?

Answer: Ecotourism

FBQ12: ----- explains purposeful travel to natural areas to understand the natural history of the environment?

Answer: Eco-tourism

FBQ13: A soft ----- experience might have the visitor ----- stay in first-class hotels, eat in good restaurants?

Answer: Eco-tourism

FBQ14: During the Military regime in Nigeria, tourism was declared a preferred -----?

Answer: Sector

FBQ15: Ecological information determines the link between biodiversity conservation and ----- which has a tangible market value?

Answer: Culture

FBQ16: Tourists movements at the destination and nearby attractions give demand to local ----- needs

Answer: Transport

FBQ17: ----- cost is the benefit that society or individuals lose when an area is protected.

Answer: Opportunity

FBQ18: The statement "modern tourism is subject to sharp seasonal variations" is credited to -----?

Answer: UNWTO

FBQ19: ----- per cent of the earth comprised of the seven continents of the world?

Answer: 29

FBQ20: ----- give rise to excursion circuits?

Answer: Attractions

FBQ21: For successful tourist development ----- from the major tourist-generating area is vital?

Answer: Access

FBQ22: Eight numbers of National Parks are ----- in Nigeria?

Answer: Gazette

FBQ23: The private sector looks for ----- and a return on investment?

Answer: Profit

FBQ24: ----- are more commonly distributed in the higher latitudes?

Answer: Lakes

FBQ25: Costs to acquire title is a typical example of ----- cost

Answer: Direct

FBQ26: Different factors that prevent normal market operations are referred to as ----- failure?

Answer: Market

FBQ27: The first necessary step in conserving natural resources (for tourism) is to focus on ----- pristine areas?

Answer: Preserving

FBQ28: The majority of what tourists pay for a trip (airfare, hotel in the capital, operator's share) goes to ----- companies?

Answer: Expatriate

FBQ29: -----ecotourism includes natural travel as an incidental component of a broader trip?

Answer: Casual

FBQ30: At -----stage of tourist life cycle, authorities attempt to "re-launch" the destination by providing new facilities, attracting new markets and re-investing?

Answer: Rejuvenation

FBQ31: Private sector typically takes on the responsibility of providing the ----- superstructure?

Answer: Tourist

FBQ32: ----- plains and form is ideal for resort development?

Answer: Coastal

FBQ33: The ----- and game reserves were assumed to preserve various species of wild animals in their natural habitat for posterity?

Answer: Parks

FBQ34: ----- tourists are primarily interested in going on unusual trips?

Answer: Mainstream

FBQ35: The word conservation is very significant to -----?

Answer: Sustainability

MCQ1: TINAPA was initially designed to be a huge -----?

Answer: Leisure park

MCQ2: ----- explain tourist life cycle where peak visitor numbers have been reached and the destination is unfashionable?

Answer: Stagnation

MCQ3: Team members' expertise for park planners should cover a wide variety of fields except?

Answer: Linguistics

MCQ4: Notable conservation areas in Africa include the following except?

Answer: Okomu National Park (Benue)

MCQ5: Vegetative cover acts as a natural filter for the following except?

Answer: Engagement of forest guards

MCQ6: The following are needed to determine acceptable visitation levels of a tourists site except?

Answer: Tragedy at the destination.

MCQ7: Significant reasons why countries pursue tourism are as follows except?

Answer: Tourist growth

MCQ8: The following information are needed to determine acceptable visitation levels of eco-tourists to a destination except?

Answer: Responsive audience

MCQ9: The following explained environmental factors that influences eco-tourism development except?

Answer: Prolonged fresh air

MCQ10: Scope of eco-tourism discuss include the following except -----?

Answer: Purposeful travel to explore the cultural resources of the area.

MCQ11: ----- argued for environmental sustainability except?

Answer: Gastronomy aware tourism

MCQ12: The following are types of eco-tourists except _____?

Answer: Mass tourists

MCQ13: Definitions of ecotourism evolved from emphasizes on -----?

Answer: Nature-oriented tourism

MCQ14: The following increase the pressure to convert undeveloped natural areas to agricultural or urban uses except?

Answer: The National policy for Arts and Cultures

MCQ15: The following are the main characteristics of Tourist resources except?

Answer: River Niger and Benue

MCQ16: Scope of eco-tourism discuss include the following except -----?

Answer: Purposeful travel to explore the cultural resources of the area.

MCQ17: The following information are needed to determine acceptable visitation levels of eco-tourists to a destination except?

Answer: Responsive audience

MCQ18: The following are the benefits of protected areas except?

Answer: Tragedy value of the people

MCQ19: The following are factors that influences how a culture reacts to tourism except?

Answer: Distribution of tourism experts

MCQ20: Water resources for tourism can be viewed as the following except?

Answer: Murray

MCQ21: At ----- stage of the tourist life cycle, destination begins to change in appearance?

Answer: Development

MCQ22: The Argungu fishing competition started in the _____.
Answer: 1930s

MCQ23: Obudu Hill is _____metres above sea level?
Answer: 1,576 metres

MCQ24: Wikki, Mawuglo, Gwana and Dimil, are located in _____?
Answer: Yankari National park

MCQ25: _____was legally constituted as a Game Reserve in 1956 by the defunct Northern Nigeria Government?
Answer: Yankari game reserves

MCQ26: _____ is popularly regarded as Nigeria's Garden of Eden?
Answer: Yankari National park

MCQ27: The following are examples of tourist infrastructure except?
Answer: Bike runways

MCQ28: The following explains Clawson's classification of recreation resources except?
Answer: Producer oriented

MCQ29: The following activity takes place in the shallow waters near to the shore except?
Answer: Duckworth

MCQ30: The following land features are attractive to tourism creation except?
Answer: France officials

MCQ31: ----- is the number of continent on the planet earth?
Answer: Seven

MCQ32: The following are the main characteristics of Tourist resources except?
Answer: River Niger and Benue

MCQ33: The ideal planning team should have between three and _____members?
Answer: Six

MCQ34: The following are one of the logical sequence of park planning except?
Answer: Description of national boundary

MCQ35: The following are factors that influence how a culture reacts to tourism except?
Answer: Distribution of tourism experts